

1. For many Muslims, Ramadan is a special time of seeking God. Pray that their seeking would lead them to a relationship with Jesus.

Jeremiah 29.13 "If you look for me wholeheartedly, you will find me."

2. Pray that Christians all over would reach out to Muslim neighbors and co-workers during Ramadan. Ask God to open doors of relationship between Muslims and Christians.

Ephesians 2.14 For Christ himself has brought peace to us. He united Jews and Gentiles into one people when, in his own body on the cross, he broke down the wall of hostility that separated us.

3. Pray for your Muslim friends by name that they might find the abundant life Jesus has for them. If you don't have any Muslim friends, ask God to give you some. In the meantime, here are some of mine you can pray for: Ismail, Farhad, Ali & Ena'am.

John 10.10 The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.

4. Pray against the violence that all too often rears its ugly head during Ramadan.

I Timothy 2.1-2 I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people— 2 for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness.

5. Pray that God would accelerate the movements of Muslims to Christ that are currently happening all over the world.

John 10.16 I have other sheep, too, that are not in this sheepfold. I must bring them also. They will listen to my voice, and there will be one flock with one shepherd.

Thank you for joining many believers in prayer for Muslims during Ramadan this year. May God hear and answer our prayers beyond what we can ask or imagine. Feel free to share this simple prayer outline as broadly as you desire.
